When contacted, a spokesperson for the PAP Community Foundation (PCF)

When contacted, a spokesperson for the PAP Community Foundation (PCF) said: “PCF is aware of the incident which occurred in January last year. We had done all we could to seek medical attention for the child. We were in constant contact with the parents until the child was withdrawn from the centre.

We had our internal investigation report looking at the facts and circumstances of the incident. The parents and we were all prepared to meet the child’s medical expenses related to this incident. The well-being of our children is our highest priority and we will always do our utmost to provide them with a safe and nurturing learning experience in PCF.

The Big Picture

The law school, which will be named the Third Law School, will be part of the National University of Singapore’s Faculty of Law.
